

ALT 1: Study tours

- 14.10      Visit to the Lidköping large scale Heat & Power plant based upon combustion of waste and bioenergy.
Presented by Lidköping Energi and Metso Power
- 15.15      Coffee break at Lundsbrunn Spa Resort
- 15.45      Demonstration of the local heating plant with boilers fired with wood pellets at the Lundsbrunn Spa Resort
Presented by Janfire
- 16.10      Demonstration of small scale wood pellets production at a local saw mill
Presented by Sweden Power Chippers
- 17.20      Open house with bioenergy product exhibition at the international bioenergy consultant ÄFAB in Lidköping
Presented by ÄFAB

ALT 2: "Lidköping case"

On how local public activities have created the right conditions for a green market.

- 13.30-17.00      Politics guide the municipality in a direction towards "Sustainable Lidköping"
Kjell Hedvall, Mayor, Lidköping
- Presentation of Lidköping municipality and the role of a municipality
Lisbeth Nyström, International Coordinator
- How can a municipality pursue local climate work?
Yvonne Träff, Environmental Strategist

Community planning for a sustainable community

Richard Sännek, Land and Development Engineer, Community Development

Coffee break

Energy advice to the population and companies of the municipality

Jonas Wedebrand, Energy Advisor

The Energy Gain – Environmental and energy training for small and medium-sized companies

Yvonne Träff, Environmental Strategist

Municipal combined heat and power generation supplies the whole of the town of Lidköping

Jan-Erik Isaksson, Managing Director of Lidköping combined heat and power plant

Bioenergy heats schools and pensioner dwellings in the country

Annika Önnermalm, Energy Engineer, Real Estate Office

The municipality cooperates with companies to start the production of liquid biogas for heavy vehicles

Swedish Biogas International and Gothenburg Energy

18.00      Joint mingling at the Bioenergy Exhibition at ÄFAB

19.00-22.00      Dinner at ÄFAB (casual)

